

FILMS DATES Sept 2018 to April 2019

Date 2018	Film	Description
Wednesday 12 th September	The Guernsey Literary + Potato Peel Pie Society	Set just after WW2, a young journalist travels to Guernsey to write a book about the lives of its inhabitants during the German occupation.
Tues 25 th Sept	The English Patient	A WW2 pilot is nursed back to health after a plane crash in the desert. He regains his memory of an affair with a married woman.
Wed 17 th Oct	Victoria + Abdul	The unlikely relationship between Queen Victoria (Judy Dench) and a young Indian clerk who becomes her close confidant.
Tues 30 th Oct	The Dark Horse	Set in NZ and based on a true story. A man with a mental disorder helps run a chess club and inspires youngsters to play, one goes onto to win a national competition.
Wed 7 th Nov	Three Billboards Outside Ebbing Missouri	Black comedy about Mildred, who unhappy about the progress made by the police into the murder of her daughter uses billboards to criticise their efforts.
Tues 27 th Nov	The Post	Story of the Washington Post and the printing of the Pentagon papers. Meryl Streep and Tom Hanks.
Tues 18 th Dec	The Happy Prince	Story based on the last years of Oscar Wilde's life
2019
Wed 9 th Jan	The Sting	Classic film with Robert Redford and Paul Newman as they try to con the con-man.
Wed 23 rd Jan	Paddington 2	More of Paddington Bear in London as he tries to earn money for his aunt's birthday present.
Tues 12 th Feb	The Darkest Hour	Gary Oldman's Oscar performance as Winston Churchill. His decision as to whether to negotiate with Hitler or continue the war.
Wed 27 th Feb	Blackboard Jungle	1950's inner city USA. An idealistic young teacher's struggle to educate in a poor school.
Tues 12 th March	Tommy's Honour	19 th Century historical drama depicting the lives, careers and relationships of pioneer golfing champions.
Wed 27 th March	The Founder	True Story of a struggling US salesman who met the McDonald brother's burger outlet in the 1950's and saw the potential of the franchise potential.
Tues 9 th April	The Greatest Showman	Hugh Jackman as PT Barnum. An original musical that tells of the visionary who rose to create a spectacle. 'Pure unadulterated Hollywood entertainment.'