The Big Textile Show – Sat 26th & Sun 27th Sept
at Leicester Grammar School

Jenny Lees is organising her biggest and best (to date!) textile show where you can see exhibitors, take part in workshops and learn from experts about all things to do with textiles.

There will be trade stalls for everything from African fabrics and Alpaca fibres to Yarns, including silk threads and fabrics, hand-made glass beads and jewellery, leathers, suedes and sheepskins, quilting materials and more!

Special this year: The Big Textile Show has been accepted as the venue for a Guinness World Record Attempt!

The record attempt will be for the “fastest time to yarn bomb a Mini (Classic model)”.

If you're a knitter and would like to take part, please contact Jenny Lees on 2478571.

They will be knitting a cover for not just a Mini but the very car which won its class at the Monte-Carlo Historic Rally!

Sunday 30th August - Last chance!

Sunday Afternoon Teas 3.30pm – 5.30pm

Thanks to everyone who baked & served, and/or bought & socialised, over £800 has been raised for St Peter's Church funds.

The last Afternoon Teas for 2015 will be on Sunday 30th August, outside (if fine) and/or inside St Peter's Church. Everyone welcome.

Cold War Jets Museum Open Day – Bruntingthorpe

The second of this year's open days for the cold war jets museum will be held on Sunday 30th August.

The regular array of aircraft will be out on display for all to see and most of the aircraft will also conduct a fast taxi run down the runway.

Sponsorships

On Sat 12th Sept, Sue Spriggs is doing her annual 'Ride & Stride' Bike Ride to raise money to help save Historic Churches. Half the money she raises will go to St Peter's Arnesby and the rest to the National Churches Trust.

To donate, contact Sue on 2478559 or at Cambridge House, South Close.

Paul Platts is raising money for Leicester Parkinson's Support Group by doing a 'modified Triathlon' on September 4th. This involves running on a treadmill, cycling on an exercise bike and swimming in a proper swimming pool!

To support him, please contact Paul on 2799013 or at Homestead Farmhouse, St Peter's Road.

Fruit & Vegetable Stalls

At bottom of Mill Hill Rd & top of Robert Hall Rd

Brian & Sue Spriggs and Peter & Anna Beeson have produce stalls near their gardens where they, and other gardeners, put their spare produce in exchange for donations which will be given to charity. Please leave suitable donations as explained on each stall.
