Tea, coffee & cakes (of course!) available too.

Arnesby Book Group

The book group meet monthly at each other's homes in Arnesby, where light refreshments are provided and members discuss that month's book.

Our reading choices have been very varied and we have explored different genres from crime fiction to poetry, classics to science fiction, children's literature and foreign writing. Suggestions for new ideas are always welcome and we would be delighted if new members would like to join us.

Current books are "The Blackhouse" by Peter May & "Norwegian Wood" by Murakami

You are welcome to come for just one meeting if the book is one you have read or are interested in.

Contact Alison Platts (2799013) or Sue Spriggs (2478559) for further information.

Christmas Concert by "The Tuesday Occasionals"

Sat 10th December at 7.30pm in St Peter's Church

We are pleased to be able to welcome back The Tuesday Occasionals who will present 'Keeping Christmas', an evening of choral music and readings for Advent and Christmas.

The 'T.O.s' sang at St. Peter's in April 2013, and are returning by popular demand with seasonal pieces from their repertoire of West Gallery music, accompanied by reflective readings.

West Gallery songs are the traditional music of rural parish churches from the 18th and 19th centuries. The Tuesday Occasionals are the only choral group in Britain to specialise in both English West Gallery and American Sacred Harp music. We can be sure that they will treat us to some stirring harmonies and there will be opportunities to join in singing with them.

Tickets £8 available from Brian or Sue Spriggs
