Arnesby Book Group

The book group meet monthly at each other's homes in Arnesby, where light refreshments are provided and members discuss that month's book.

Our reading choices have been very varied and we have explored different genres from crime fiction to poetry, classics to science fiction, children's literature and foreign writing. Suggestions for new ideas are always welcome and we would be delighted if new members would like to join us. You are welcome to come for just one meeting if the book is one you have read or are interested in.

Current books are "Balshazzar's Daughter" by Barbara Nadal for March, "I'll Keep You Safe" by Peter May in April and "Vinegar Girl" by Anne Tyler in May.

Contact Alison Platts (2799013) or Sue Spriggs (2478559) for further information.

Entertainment in Village Hall – Fri 20th April at 7pm

The 1000 Years Show (1066 – 2066) by Anthony King, as appearing at the Leicester Comedy Festival.

Reviewers say:

"Brilliant light hearted and memorable look at history - enjoyed by 72 years to 2 years! Thank you"

"Whilst parallels may be drawn with Horrible Histories, I think King deserves something more. His easy-going raconteur style draws in his listeners with a gentle, rather clever wit..." - British Theatre Guide.
